DAILY TRIBUNE.

Monday Morning .... Nov. 23, 1857.

[illegible] Assault upon the Tribune—The Secret Cause.

The readers of the Democrat are frequently [illegible] that an ancient feud exists between the Mayor of Chicago and the Local of the [illegible]. The editor of that paper makes this [illegible] squabble the pretext for assailing the Tribune continually. Of the origin, merits, [illegible] of this "family" discord, we know [illegible] beyond the common report that it was [illegible] by slanders uttered by one of the [illegible], followed by a flagellation from the [illegible]. But whatever the cause or merits of [illegible] may be, the Tribune is not influenced [illegible] the slightest degree.

The Local of this paper collects and reports [illegible]. And as the Mayor and his police [illegible] furnish matter for more or less [illegible] daily, our reporter neither extenuates [illegible] down in malice, concerning the [illegible] of them, but endeavors to state the [illegible] consequences take care of [illegible]. In the plain discharge of his [illegible] attended Justice Milliken's Court on [illegible], and witnessed the prosecution [illegible] of eight drayman charged with not [illegible] their badges.

[illegible] made out executions direct[illegible] commitment to the Bridewell, if the [illegible] were not paid, and turned over [illegible] the prisoners to officers Nor[illegible] to await the judgment of the [illegible] to Saturday last there has been [illegible], showing that the executions [illegible], or that the men had recovered [illegible] liberty. The policemen who made the [illegible] and testified against them, stated in the [illegible] of several persons, that they had made [illegible] by the express and peremptory [illegible] of the Mayor himself.

Upon the strength of these proceedings, and [illegible] information, of which they were eye and [illegible] witnesses, the reporters of the "Democratic [illegible]," the "Daily Times," the "Evening [illegible]," and the "Chicago Tribune," stated [illegible] the next issues of their respective papers the [illegible] as they had heard and seen [illegible]. Taking it for granted that the police[illegible], the comments of the Re[illegible] papers were exceedingly mild and [illegible] in view of the cold-blooded character of [illegible] orders. But he denies having given [illegible] to his policemen; and says that [illegible] or to use his own language, "prac[illegible]" upon the reporters.

[illegible] glad to learn that the poor fellows [illegible] incarcerated, and pleased to be assur[illegible] the Mayor that he did not cause their ar[illegible] "revenue purposes," as his policemen [illegible] stated. We accept his explanation or [illegible] in the premises, but advise him to [illegible] his policemen to tell the truth here[illegible] to prevent mistakes and misunderstan[illegible]. And we are glad to learn also, that all [illegible] managed to raise the money to pay [illegible] save one, and that the Mayor remit[illegible] promise of future good behavior, and [illegible] he was in favor of wearing badg[illegible] Mayor informs us.

[illegible] advantage of the falsehoods of his [illegible], whose statement he repudiates, [illegible] empties a column of vituperative [illegible] upon the Tribune. The assertions he [illegible] and the lies he invents, are so self-[illegible] that they carry their own refu[illegible] his dignified attitude [illegible] who perpetrates obscene [illegible] every decent person for the purpose [illegible] wonderful wit before his vag[illegible]. He may elicit a "horse [illegible]" but he can not command their respect [illegible]. And so too of [illegible] before us. One class of [illegible] "grin a humble smile," [illegible] allegations however, but [illegible] falsity; while the more de[illegible] class of people will throw [illegible] with feelings of disgust at [illegible] which the article contains, [illegible] they were WRITTEN BY THE [illegible] Chicago!

[illegible] our readers have not seen the ar[illegible] Democrat, we will state its brief [illegible] devotes his abuse exclusively to the [illegible] and says not a word against either [illegible] Journal, both of whom published the [illegible] of the affair that appeared in the [illegible] of this paper; thus showing a [illegible] against the TRIBUNE.

[illegible] charges that the TRIBUNE is in alli[illegible] the Times against the Republicans of [illegible]. The egotistical knave imagines him[illegible] "Republicans of Chicago"—that [illegible] "embodiment" of the party! That is [illegible]

[illegible] says, that at the "late Nebraska [illegible]" did nothing but denounce [illegible] Democrat and its editor; while he [illegible] assailing the TRIBUNE or its [illegible]. Why is this?" Because your state[illegible]. You flatter yourself, Mr. Went[illegible]. Douglas never mentioned you or your [illegible] allude to either, during his [illegible], as any person in attendance can [illegible]. He was too much occupied with the [illegible] and odor" of the negro, to pay atten[illegible] peculiar "stink" you emit, and thus [illegible] you entirely.

[illegible] that the TRIBUNE is contin[illegible] Wentworth and the Re[illegible], and that these attacks of [illegible] the echoes of Douglas." [illegible] approves the Mayor as often [illegible] of official misconduct; as [illegible] in a way to bring odium [illegible] the Republican par[illegible] he is caught in his [illegible]. And this well known [illegible] of the TRIBUNE has [illegible] and restraining in[illegible] his reckless tendencies. His ad[illegible] would be insufferable but for the [illegible]. Had it let him alone he [illegible] made a shipwreck of the Republi[illegible] of Chicago and been in open alliance [illegible], upon whom he would [illegible] all the offices in his gift. [illegible] assault upon the "signs" [illegible] property of the business [illegible] put a stop to it. When the [illegible] plundered by burglars, for want [illegible] which he had refused to em[illegible], the TRIBUNE urged him into adopting [illegible] measures for the protection of [illegible]. When he pounced upon the [illegible], in the matter of [illegible] the TRIBUNE put a sudden [illegible] and called for refunding [illegible] were refunded. When he [illegible] the dogs of the Germans, [illegible] in violation of law, the TRI[illegible] to stop his sport, and made [illegible] the people whose animals he [illegible] them restitution, and [illegible] the like again; and he has not [illegible] the practice of entering the [illegible] without taking out the [illegible] and making arrests contrary to [illegible], or out of "pure [illegible]" illustrating the pris[illegible] trial. The exposures and com[illegible] has caused him to be [illegible] in these respects. [illegible] judge, juror, police[illegible] in the courts quite so often or [illegible] to be did formerly. In short, the TRIBUNE has "tamed this shrew" into tolerable official behavior and hopes to work still farther reforms upon him, before the expiration of his official career. Whatever it has done has been done with an eye single to the interests of the city and the good of the Republican party. It has been moved and actuated solely by the promptings of duty, and not by any feelings of jealousy or hatred, for it harbors none towards "LONG JOHN." When he behaves himself it praises him; when he misbehaves it reproves him. His gabble about the TRIBUNE being in alliance with DOUGLAS is too silly and nonsensical for serious reputation. But there is an explanation of the secret of his hostility towards the TRIBUNE which has not yet been made public and may as well be stated now as at any other time.

The heighth of Mr. Wentworth's ambition, and the one thing upon which he has set his whole heart, is the seat Douglas holds in the U. S. Senate. All his moves have been made to win that darling prize. He WANTS TO CONTROL A BALANCE OF POWER in the next Legislature and compel the Republican members to choose between him and Douglas. The statement he made last fall in the Metropolitan Hall, that he was for ABRAM LINCOLN, was simply gammon, intended to allay suspicion and disarm opposition, while he was setting his trap and weaving his web. He knows that he cannot use, purchase, or intimidate the TRIBUNE into his service. Hence, his continued and malevolent efforts to destroy or weaken its influence among Republicans. This is the secret of his violent assaults upon it. But he may as well cease them. He will neither succeed in alienating the Republicans of Illinois from the support of the TRIBUNE, nor yet be able to gouge LINCOLN out of the seat in the Senate, and slip himself in, if the Republicans have control of the next Legislature.

Slavery in the Free States.

The Washington Union of the 17th proclaims the doctrine, as an article in the Democratic creed, the Constitutional right of the slave-holder to remove with his slaves to ANY FREE STATE and hold them there! The first great aggression upon the North was the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. Next came the Dred Scott decision; then the Buchanan letter to Silliman declaring that the Constitution carries Slavery into all territories of the United States. Now we have the fourth step in this down hill road to despotism, that the Constitution overrides State rights and carries slavery into all the States. The fifth and last scene in the drama, is the re-opening of the African Slave trade, which is fiercely advocated by the South. Oh, Democracy, what crimes are perpetrated in thy name!

Wisconsin Election.

We give this morning, official or reported returns from every county in the State in which an election was held on the 3d inst. Of these, all but four are official, and the reported results of those four are doubtless nearly accurate.—Our figures put Judge Randall upwards of 500 votes ahead on the official canvass, and 200 ahead, including the disputed returns from Jefferson, and not including the votes of several rejected towns which gave Republican majorities. It is therefore, we think, perfectly safe to assume that Alexander W. Randall, is the Governor elect of this State. The Republicans have also elected the State Prison Commissioner, McGraw, and probably the Treasurer, Mr. Hastings. The vote on Lieut. Governor is very close. The democrats have doubless elected their candidates for the other State offices.—Mil. Sent., 21st.

[From the Madison Journal, Nov. 20th.]

The Argus with its best figures for Cross, left Randall 81 ahead last evening, and thereupon admits that "the chances are rather against Cross."

There is a rumor that Russel Wheeler, and some other of Cross' agents, have started for the North in search of supplements.

CITY ITEMS.

APPOINTMENT.—John W. Magill, Esq., of this city, has received the appointment of Commissioner for the U. S. Court of Claims.

RUNAWAY.—We learn that J. C. Connell, Secretary of Engine Company No. 6, ran away last week with $43 of the company's money in his possession.

UPPER MISSISSIPPI CLOSED.—On Saturday the boys were skating on the Mississippi at Prairie du Chien. Navigation is closed thereaway until next Spring.

WHOPS IT.—The statement published in the Staats Zeitung, signed C. Walker, was written by Wentworth himself. There is no mistaking the ear marks. You are a smart boy, John.

BURGLARY.—Madison Waldron was arrested on Saturday on a charge of burglary, in entering the house of Mr. Melvin, on the North side, and stealing some articles therefrom. He was held to bail in the sum of $500, and in default, committed.

LIVE STOCK.—On last Saturday forty-five cars of hogs came in on the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad. They were for Chicago packers. A considerable number of the hogs perished from cold during the transit.

LARCENY.—About noon on Friday, a heavy Russian bear over-coat was stolen from the billiard saloon over Platt's Livery Stable, on Randolph street. It contained a memorandum book, and sundry notes and other papers in favor of Messrs. Pinney & Sampson.

A LIE OUT.—Wentworth says that unbadged draymen were arrested upon the complaint of certain other competing draymen. C. Walker, policeman, says that he arrested them on his own motion—that he saw some draymen without badges and arrested them. Which lies, the Mayor or policeman?

VALUABLE LETTER FOUND.—One of the employees on the steamer Lady Elgin picked up in the street, on Saturday, a letter containing three drafts for $160 each. The owner can have them by proving property. Apply on board the steamer, at the dock, between Lasalle and Wells street.

NEW FIRE ENGINE.—The new engine for Fire Company No. 6, has arrived and been tested by the Company. A stream was thrown horizontally through a one inch nozzle, a distance of 160 feet, and two smaller streams were thrown at once a distance of 104 feet. The machine is from the manufactory of Mr. Button, of Waterford, New York, and is an excellent one.

PROPELLER CHICAGO.—The Detroit Free Press of the 20th says: "This propeller, of the American Transportation Company, passed up yesterday. She took on passengers and a small amount of freight for Mackinaw. There was a report on the dock that she had run aground at Bar Point, where she laid over twelve hours, when a tug got her off; but this was contradicted. If she had been detained so long, and so near the city, the facts would have been definitely known, instead of the vague rumor that was in circulation."

MORE ROBBERIES.—On last Wednesday afternoon, the dwelling in the West Division, of a clerk in the American Express Company's office, was entered by thieves and robbed of $100 worth of clothing. The thieves entered by the front door, while the family were in the kitchen, went up stairs, deliberately packed the clothing in a valise and carried it off without detection.

The same afternoon, another house near the above was entered in the same manner, probably by the same thieves, and a trunk full of valuable clothing carried off.

A boarder in one of the houses had invited a young lady to attend the Cadet's Ball, but was forced to provide another escort for her, for the reason that the thieves had carried off his best clothing.

The Express Clerk states that he applied to the West Market Station House for assistance to catch the thieves, and was told to think of the matter and if he suspected anybody, to find where the suspected persons lived and then he could have the services of two policemen to search the premises. Valuable assistance that!

ANOTHER TERRIBLE WRECK.

Schooner Flying Cloud Gone to Pieces.

CAPT. SHERWOOD AND SIX MEN FROZEN TO DEATH.

The schooner Flying Cloud, which left this port last Wednesday for Cleveland, with a cargo of 10,500 bushels of wheat, was wrecked at the head of the Lake, some forty miles from this city, Thursday afternoon, and the captain and six of the crew were frozen to death. Only one sailor, Francis Fox, and a boy named Henry Colman, were saved, and these are badly frozen. From the former, who reached this city Saturday evening by the Southern Railroad, we learn the particulars of the wreck as follows:—

The Flying Cloud had proceeded down the Lake some fifty miles, with a fair wind, when the storm of Wednesday struck her, riddling her sails and rendering her completely unmanageable. She was driven at the mercy of the waves back toward the head of the Lake, and her boat was carried away about midnight of Wednesday. About 2 o'clock of the afternoon of Thursday, the most bitter cold day of the season, she was driven ashore at a place called Grand Calumet, a wild, bleak coast, covered with snow, and no friendly hands to render assistance. The whole of the crew were already nearly frozen and unable to swim. They consisted of nine persons, mostly belonging to Cleveland, viz: Alex. Sherwood, captain; Geo. Gordon, 1st mate; Paul Stedd, 2d mate; John ——, steward (shipped at this city from barque Morgan,) and John Small, Geo. Grimby, Watt Bain, Francis Fox and Henry Coleman, crew. Only the last two are saved. The Captain, Steward, John Small, and Geo. Grimby were soon so badly frozen that they were unable to move. The Captain wanted to jump overboard, but was prevented by the others, as he would have drowned immediately, though he was only to die by the more lingering death of freezing. Gardner, Bain and Fox jumped overboard some twenty-four hours after the vessel struck, and after she had become a perfect wreck, and succeeded in getting ashore; but the two former froze to death and are now on the beach, dead. A shingle maker with a shanty near by, furnished Fox with shoes and clothes and assisted him to Miller's Station on the Southern Railroad, a mile or two distant, from whence he came to this city. He is badly frozen.

The boy Coleman managed to get ashore alive, and remained at the shanty near the wreck, badly frozen.

The Flying Cloud was owned by Barry, Corning & Co., of Cleveland, and was insured in the Cleveland Mutual for $6,000. She was worth about $8,000. Her cargo was insured in same Company for about $7,000.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Quite a scene came off in the Recorder's Court on Saturday, which caused no little excitement. It appears that some five indictments had been found by the Grand Jury against the medical student, Eli York, who had been examined upon a charge of being connected with the city sexton in robbing graves, and discharged from custody by the examining magistrate on the ground that York had proven an alibi.

York' counsel, David Stuart, Esq., animadverted in severe terms, upon the conduct of the private detectives in compelling, as the counsel insisted, York to stand a trial after the proceedings had before the magistrate. Mr. Edward Rucker, an employee, we believe, of Allen Pinkenton's, who happened to be present, and who is connected in some way with the case, pronounced Mr. Stuart's statement false, whereupon the latter very promptly and properly slapped the detective's face. The officers of the court immediately interfered, and the fracas, after some hard words and a rebuke from the court, ended.

York gave bail in the sum of $1000, and Quinlan in $2500, for their appearance for trial. A motion was made to postpone the case to the next term, which the court took under advisement.

CHEAP AND WARM COVERING FOR POOR AND RICH.—A correspondent of the New York Evening Post, writing from Washington City, on the 16th inst., thus relates his experience with a coverlid made of newspapers:

Soon after the advent of chilly nights, finding the extra covers too heavy, and remembering the suggestion of a year ago, I took off a weighty coverlid, and substituted a half a dozen copies of a popular weekly. I never slept more pleasantly. I mentioned it to some of my acquaintances, who, on trial of the past two weeks, pronounced it effectual. I use it on three beds in my house, and, as nothing can be cheaper, I feel authorized to recommend them for general use. I had the curiosity to weigh the newspapers in use on my three beds, and the amount of all is three pounds only. The papers can be spread loosely, overlapping one another, although, for convenience, I have pasted the edges together. How trifling is the cost, and how easily obtained! A pound or two of old newspapers can be procured for four cents a pound, and if spread between two light covers to retain them in their place will keep a person comfortable whether he be poor or rich. The experiment can be easily tried. In the meantime I attach my initials, authorizing you, if you think proper, to place my name at the head of this communication.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire at 12½ o'clock yesterday (Sunday) morning was caused by the burning of a coach shed, attached to Cook & Potter's livery stable, corner of West Madison and Union streets. The shed was one hundred and fifty feet long, and a family lived in the south end of it, where the fire originated. Five or six valuable carriages were burned. The brick stable east of the shed, and the houses on the west side of Union street were saved with difficulty. The loss is estimated at $2,000. We did not learn the amount of insurance.

HIS LENGTHINESS.—Long John, Mayor and Editor, became fearfully excited about a short item in the TRIBUNE of Friday, and forthwith wrote a whole column in reply, in which any stray shreds of truth which awkwardly thrust themselves in, were most ingeniously covered up with a mass of falsehoods. Johnny, Johnny, you should not get so very angry about the paragraphs of "half-witted" people, and, Johnny, you need not fear but that the public will remember how great a liar you are, if you should now and then tell the truth.

"Our Local" is very sorry, Johnny, very, to have excited your choler so much, it being bad for digestion, and particularly for yours, Johnny, who are so much of a glutton. It would be a pity, Johnny, to have you "go-off" with a pain under your apron strings, and thus loose such a duck of a Mayor.

Johnny, there is a negro melody entitled "Kentucky Joe," a charming song, which we advise you to sing the next time you get in a passion.

ROBBERS IN THIS COUNTY.—A gentleman from Proviso, in this county, informs us that on last Wednesday night, Mr. Porter of that town, had a harness worth $70 stolen from his stable. The thief has not been discovered.

A neighbor of Mr. Porter's had a pair of valuable horses, and a buggy and harness, stolen from his stable the same night. The thieves drove them about two miles distant, where, in attempting to leave the road for the open prairie, they ran the pole of the wagon into a sod fence, got the horses stuck fast in the ditch, and being unable to extricate them without assistance, went away and left them in this predicament.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL.—We understand the managers of the Michigan Central Road, at Boston, have accepted bills to the extent of about $2,650,000, first mortgage 8 per cent. bonds, the exact average not yet known, but the proceeds are understood to be about $2,000,000 net cash, making the average about 75 per cent. The bonds have since been resold in considerable parcels at 80a82½ per cent. The whole mortgage is for $8,000,000. The present issue leaves $5,350,000 to cover at maturity, or by previous voluntary conversion, the outstanding bonds of the Company, due after July, 1858. Part of the avails of the present negotiation is to pay $801,000 of the old bonds due in January and July, 1858.

REMITTING FLOUR.—The agent in this city of the Conway Insurance Company, having funds to remit to the parent office, has purchased 100 barrels of flour, and sent it to Gen. Whitney, at Springfield, Mass., the President of the Company. Gen. Whitney is Superintendent of the United States Armory, in Springfield, and he proposes to sell the flour to the Armorers at cost, thus answering the double purpose of furnishing the Armorers with flour at a low price, and saving the present rates of exchange. The flour will cost at Springfield, about $6 per barrel.

MCVICKER'S THEATRE.—Miss Davenport commences an engagement at this Theatre to-night. The play is "Ingomar," with Miss Davenport as Parthenia and Mr. Perry as Ingomar. This popular place of amusement is now warmed by means of steam radiators and is very comfortable even in the coldest weather.

ARRESTED ON A CAPIAS.—O. J. Rose, formerly City Treasurer, and Daniel Elston, were arrested on Saturday afternoon on a capias sued out by Michael Diversey, and bail required in the sum of $72,000. Mr. Elston procured bail and was discharged, but Mr. Rose not being so lucky, was committed to jail.

NATIONAL THEATRE—EQUESTRIAN SEASON.—This evening the new equestrian and gymnastic company makes its first appearance at the National. The list of performers embraces the names of some of the most celebrated artistes in the country. The horses are all in excellent condition, and the Amphitheatre will no doubt attract crowded audiences. The dramatic company will also appear, as usual. The building has been thoroughly renovated, and is well warmed.

THE Second Lecture before the Young Men's Wesleyan Union will be delivered at Metropolitan Hall, to-night by Rev. D. W. Clark, D. D., of Cincinnati. Subject—"Memory Imperishable." Go and hear it by all means. The well established character of the lecturer for beauty of style both as a writer and speaker, and the unrivalled field for thought afforded by the subject, are guarantees for an intellectual entertainment unusually attractive.

CONTINUED SALE.—Mr. James A. Marshall sells the balance of the furniture in the large boarding house on the corner of State and Van Buren streets this morning at 10 o'clock.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—J. H. Dunham & Co., will receive to-day from New Orleans, via Cairo, a large stock of new crop sugars, the first of the season.

WE call attention of Merchants Shopkeepers to the card of Phillips, Hunt & Co. of Cairo, in another column.

CONTINUED SALE.—Mr. James A. Marshall sells this morning through his gentlemanly Auctioneer J. D. Haven, the balance of the furniture in the large Boarding House on the corner of Van Buren and State street. We would advise all wishing bargains to attend. Sale commences at 10 o'clock.

SEASONABLE.—Wadsworth & Wells offer for a short time their immense stock of Overshoes at retail. These Wisconsin shoes of their own manufacture are unequalled. All in want of a pair for the Winter can supply themselves at wholesale prices. See advertisement.

PARTICULAR NOTICE is called to the sale of furniture at Grubb & Gilbert's auction store, 104 Lake st., this (Monday) morning, at 10 o'clock. They have a full assortment and are to be sold by order of assignee.

THE sale of books at 53 Dearborn street, on Saturday evening, was the largest ever made in this city. The sale will be continued on this (Monday) evening.—Nothing but perfect books in fine bindings will be offered.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, Saturday Evening, Nov. 21, 1857.

Receipts of grain have fallen off considerably the past three days. Considering the inclement state of the weather, business of all kinds is active, the wheat market being animated and prices rather better at the close than on yesterday. Shipments by Lake continue large, amounting to 159,089 bu wheat in last 24 hours. Fourteen vessels cleared to-day, with cargoes for the lower lakes, and the shipments of to-day show 1,020 bbls flour, 226,797 bu wheat, 2,000 bu corn, 5,000 bu oats, and 350 bbls beef and pork; but a close must soon be put to navigation by lake, and an accumulation of produce here will be the result. Distillers are already getting new corn on their own terms, though oats are still in good demand for the local trade and the pineries. The market for Beef Cattle is good, and the stock light. Dressed Hogs and Poultry are in demand. Eggs and Potatoes also, as the cold weather freezes all that come in. Good eggs are worth 16@18c ℔ dozen.

Receipts of new crop of Sugar will be had the first of the week in abundance, and though the demand will be good, prices will be much reduced.

The following are transactions of to-day.

FREIGHTS.—No charters were made to-day, but one vessel was on the market. She was held at 15c for wheat to Buffalo, capacity 10,000 bu.

FLOUR.—Sales include 90 bbls "Altons" and 80 bbls "Kankakee" at $3,80; 100 bbls "Kewanee" at $3,87½ on track; and 400 bbls "Lockport Hydraulic" at $3,80 for next week. City mills retail family flour at $4,25; Extra at $6; Choice Extra at $7 ℔ single bbl; a reduction of 50c ℔ single bbl made on 5 bbls and over. Buckwheat flour sells at $1,50 ℔ 100 lbs. Rye flour sells at $3,75@4 ℔ bbl. Corn meal $20 ℔ ton.

WHEAT.—The market for standard spring opened buoyant at 55c in store, and the bulk of sales of the day were at this figure; towards the close, however, owing to the demand for small lots to fill out cargoes for vessels then waiting, a firmer feeling prevailed, and 56½ and 57c were paid; the market closing at the latter figure; about 50,000 bu changed hands, two-thirds at 55c in store, and the balance at 56½@57c; 4,000 bu extra spring sold at 57c in store; we quote No. 1 red at 70@72c, and No. 2 at 58@60c.

CORN.—500 bu old corn sold at 47c on board; new shelled sells at 36@37c ℔ bu; new in ear at 30@32c ℔ 75 lbs.

OATS.—Steady at 24@25c in store, and 27c in bags, at depot.

New York Market—Nov. 21.

The Hog Market.

There is now a good demand by Chicago packers for live Hogs at $4@4 50 ℔ 100 lbs gross. The weather is favorable for packing purposes, and receipts are very fair, being 4,475 head in the 24 hours ending at noon Saturday by railroad. Most of the receipts are by the Illinois Central and by the Alton road. We find the following on this subject in our exchanges:

The Cincinnati Gazette of Saturday 21st says:

In the market for Hogs, there is no change. Packers operate cautiously, but the demand at [illegible] is equal to the supply. Provisions are in fair demand and steady, except barrel Lard, which seemed to drag at 10½c. Manufacturers are holding off, feeling that the price of the present material, compared with the value of manufactured articles, is too high. About 15,000 Hogs have been packed to date, and of these the products have been nearly all taken for export. The sales to-day were 571, averaging 200 lbs, at $5 60; 1050 do, at $5 62, and 300 do, averaging 200 lbs, at $5 50. The receipts are moderate.

The St. Louis Republican of Friday, 20th, says:

In Hogs there are no operations though the weather is now as favorable as possible for packing purposes. The present severe cold spell, if it continues for a few days longer, will, we presume, bring drovers in some numbers to the market.

The Cass County (Ill.) Times contains the following call which may interest operators:

There is an unusually large number of fine, well fattened Hogs, in this county. Ten or twelve thousand have been contracted, at $4 per hundred, but it is feared there is or will be an indisposition or inability to live up to some of the contracts, by paying cash on delivery. This will not suit some of our farmers, who are afraid to sell on tick, in these kind of times, when it is so common for business men to suspend payment. Hence he who will pay all cash in hand, can buy Hogs on much better terms than he who aims to buy on credit. Cash down will be the rule, and credit sales the exception, provided there are any cash buyers in market.

From the above state of facts, we conclude that Cass county is now an excellent field for the operations of two or three pork dealers, who can pay cash on delivery. It is therefore much to be regretted that several pork dealers will be on hand in Beardstown in a short time. For our own part, if we had Hogs to sell this season, we would pack them or send them by railroad to Chicago or St Louis, before we would sell them on credit at any price.

A late Indianapolis Journal says:

There has been no slaughtering at any of our pork establishments this season yet, except a small lot killed at Macy's house. No Hogs are offering in this market, and prices are nominal. $4 50 is about the quotations here, and the advance in Cincinnati would make the figures in the neighborhood of $5, if there were any Hogs to be sold. It is going to be a very dull pork season this year.

The Dallas Gazette says there are at least 175,000 to 200,000 more pounds of pork in that county this season than there was last, and that the same ratio of increase exists generally in South Alabama.

The Springfield (Ill.) Journal of Thursday has the following remarks on this subject. In regard to farmers packing and baconing their own hogs, we do not agree with the Journal, but say as we before said, it is best for them do so, unless a remunerating price is paid for their stock. The supply of pork is not greater than the demand, nor is it likely to be so.

HOGS AND PACKING.—We are rapidly advancing upon the period when pork must be packed, if it is to be done this season. We hear of no purchase being made for pork for packing. Sales of small lots to shippers are made a $3 to $3,28 gross. The plan of farmers packing their own hogs, has seldom worked well, especially when the supply of pork is great rather than the demand. We observe that some of our exchanges favor the selling of pork by the farmer to the packer on four months credit, rather than that each man should engage in packing on his own account. This plan may be made to work if the worst comes; but in our judgment the interest of all classes will be much better promoted if pork transactions are made for cash, even if it be necessary that the price should go very low in order to obtain the money down. The pork trade now forms one of the principal resources to which the community must look for obtaining a circulating medium to supply the daily wants of business through the coming winter, and it seems to us that it is infinitely better for those who have pork to sell to let it go for that which will enable them to pay those they owe or to use in any business transaction, rather than by selling on credit at a higher price, deprive themselves or the power of extricating either themselves or their creditors from financial troubles. It is certain that there will be money in the country to buy pork whenever that a tide reaches a point at which the holders of money deem it safe to invest. We do not doubt but that some of this money will be placed in Springfield for that purpose, and persons instructed to buy at a certain figure. This being the case it will be unnecessary to adopt the credit system for moving this great staple, and we hope our readers will reflect seriously before giving their countenance to a system fraught with so many evils and vexations.

Most of the packing, so far, has been done in fulfillment of early contracts, made at $5,50@7, nett, which, of course, here and at other packing points has proved very unprofitable to packers. The following statement from the Cincinnati Gazette, exhibits minutely the deficiency pocketed by an early contractor on one small purchase:

One of our leading packers having just closed out the products of a lot of three hundred Hogs, packed on commission, we have obtained the following statement showing the result of the operation. The Hogs were contracted for last summer at $6,50 ℔ 100 lbs nett, and were delivered and cut on Monday. Full prices were realized for the products, yet there is a nett loss on the 300 hogs of $536,55.

It is seen that the "summer contracts" are proving decidedly unprofitable; and a glance at the result of the above transaction, also shows that purchases made now at $5,50, do not afford as wide a margin for profit as is desirable.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

The effects of Wednesday's storm on the Lake appear more disastrous daily. For an account of a frightful wreck, see local column. The schooner Racer, which left this port for Buffalo with a cargo of wheat, returned Saturday, her sails having been filled with ice. She will repair them, and probably start back to-day. The schooner Plover returned to port yesterday (Sunday). She lost all her firewood the first day in the gale, had a severe time of it, and burned up everything about the cabin to keep from freezing. The Altair and Norwegian came in covered with ice, sails split, &c. Quite a fleet of vessels lie at the mouth of the harbor.

The brig Mohegan and the schooner Nonpareil, bound from this city to Buffalo with wheat, put into Milwaukee on Friday. They met the gale near the Manitous, and had to send before it. The rigging and decks of both vessels were covered with ice. The Nonpareil lost her small-boat, but no damage was sustained by either vessel or their cargoes.

Prop. Racine of People's Line, left for Buffalo yesterday morning, but met a strong nor'wester at Gross Point and returned. The propeller Missouri, of W. T. Co., was to go out last night with 50 tons messed hogs and provisions for Mackinac, and 15,000 bus wheat and 600 bbls flour for Buffalo.

OFF AGAIN.—The schooner Jupiter, which returned to this port recently, after being water logged at Traverse Bay, is all right again, and we learn from her commander, Capt. Close, that she will leave again this evening for the lower lakes.

BY TELEGRPAH.

Died.

MIDDLEBURY, Vt, Nov. 21.

The Hon. Horatio Seymour, L. L. D., died here to-day. He was one of our most prominent and respected citizens, and for twelve years was U. S. Senator from Vermont.

The Adriatic.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The Collins steamer Adriatic did not get off to-day in consequence of the lowness of the water, occasioned by the long continued westerly gale. She will go to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

The Weather.

ALBANY, Nov. 21.

There has been a great change in the weather here within the last 12 hours. It is now very cold and storming.

At the canal depot it is thought navigation will close in about two weeks.

Fire at Mobile.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.

We learn from Mobile that a fire occurred there on Friday night, destroying the stores of Merchant & Co., Chas. Brender and Savage & Co., on Commerce street, and that three dwellings on Canal street were also burned. Loss $150,000.

Fire.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.

A fire broke out at 2 o'clock this afternoon, in the upper story of Derkeen's block, corner of Town and High streets, occupied by the Franklin Branch Bank, Bank's jewelry store, Devoe's dry goods store, Stanley's hat store and the Columbus Athenæum. Contents of the building saved. Building partly insured.

Trial Refused.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 21.

A decision was rendered in the Supreme Court this morning, in the case of Donnelly, who murdered the bar-keeper of the Seaview House at the Island, some time ago. None of the exceptions taken below were allowed, and consequently the motion to reverse the judgment and have a new trial was refused. Donnelly will be executed on the eighth of January next.

Gale.

GODERICH, C. W., Nov. 21.

The severe gale of yesterday continued unabated throughout the day. The schooner Lieut. Barney bound up with a cargo of iron, is ashore sixteen miles south of this place. The crew was saved. The steam tug Uncle Ben, of Detroit, is ashore at Nettle Point, a total wreck. The schooner Joseph Wilson, of Goderich, is ashore at Stoney Island. Crew saved. The crew of the Game Cock, reported ashore near here yesterday, are saved.

Notice to Firemen.

THERE WILL BE A MEETING OF THE members of the Firemen's Benevolent Association, at the Association Hall, on Tuesday, December 8th, 1857, at 7½ o'clock P. M., for the purpose of acting on the proposed Amendments to the Constitution, viz: The Committee propose to amend Article 3 of the Constitution (regulating dues) so as to read "One Dollar" instead of "Twenty-five Cents," insert "Ten Dollars" in place of "Three" for Life Membership, and add to said Article "Said fund shall be divided as follows: Twenty-five cents from each member shall be set apart for burial purposes, and shall be called the Burial Fund. Twenty-five cents for the relief of members injured in the discharge of their duties, which shall be designated as the Relief Fund. Twenty-five cents for the relief of Widows and Orphans of deceased Firemen, which shall be designated as the Widows and Orphans Fund. Twenty-five cents for general purposes, which shall be designated the Sinking Fund. All moneys received as contributions, or for Life Memberships, shall be credited to the fund for which they are contributed, or in case the contributor, in which case it shall be credited to the fund desired by him." Also to amend Article 6 (regulating meetings) so as to read "Monthly" instead of "Six Months." Also Article 8 (regulating Treasurer's reports) so as to read "Three Months" in place of "A Year." Also Article 15 (regulating the President and Secretary's report) "Three Months" in place of "A Year."

Slaves Held in Iowa—More Beauties of the Dred Scott Decision.

The Fairfield (Iowa) Ledger is informed, on good authority, that a Missouri slaveholder has removed to Warren county, in that State, and brought with him five or six slaves whom he claims a right to keep and work on the free soil of Iowa, under the Dred Scott decision. If that decision is not repudiated, such practical illustrations of its teachings will soon be found in every free State. Iowa owes it to herself to strike the manacles from every slave brought within her limits, by an explicit and peremptory statute.

We Will See.

The Springfield Register seems to have taken the Times shute on the Kansas question in regard to submitting the Constitution to the people of Kansas. It says, in Nov. 19th issue:

"A pledge had been given to the people of Kansas, that they, and they alone, should decide the character of the institutions they desire, and that the pledge must be maintained. This is the doctrine of the entire democracy, whether North or South; and, notwithstanding the action of the convention, Kansas will never be admitted into the Union under a democratic administration, until the whole people of the Territory shall have had an opportunity of voting upon every proposition of her constitution."

We shall see what we shall see, and we expect to live long enough to see the Register whipped into the traces of the oligarchs, and crouching like a spaniel before them, as it has always heretofore done. The history of the Register, for three years past, has been the history of a lick-spittle and paltroon. We doubt the genuineness of its pretended conversion to decency and Free Soil at this late hour. However, we believe that "while the lamp holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may return."

The Voice of Buchanan—More Kansas Shrieks.

The telegraph report was not mistaken in saying, that the President approved of the action of the Lecompton conspirators against the people of Kansas. We now have it confirmed by the official organ, the Union itself. It fairly shouts in extacies over the doings of the Lecompton Convention, and pledges the support of the Administration. The constitution is not to be referred back. The people are not to be allowed to choose their own domestic institutions. The right of the majority to rule is not to be regarded or protected. The pledge given by the Cincinnati Democratic National Convention is to be repudiated; the pledge given to the country, upon the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, is to be trodden under foot; the pledge of Buchanan, both before and after the election, is to be violated; and all that slavery may triumph. The Union has even the audacity and hardihood to state, that the Lecompton "schedule submits the constitution to the white inhabitants of Kansas, and gives, full, fair and practical effect to the great principle of popular sovereignty," when attached to the very article containing that false assertion is the schedule itself, which distinctly affirms that, the constitution shall not be submitted to the popular vote; that nothing but the clause legalizing the importation of more slaves is to be submitted.

The Union winds up its proclamation to the Democracy that the "news of the doings of the Lecompton Convention will bring sorrow to only one class of people, viz: the Black Republicans." We opine that it "will bring sorrow" to the Northern Democracy, beginning with the Chicago Times, who have placed their trust in the sincerity of the pledges given by BUCHANAN and the Southern wing of their party that "the people of Kansas should be left perfectly free to form and regulate their own domestic institutions in their own way, subject only to the Constitution of the United States."

In view of the new aspect of affairs, Kansas is likely to "bleed" at new pores, and a class of people will now shriek for her wounds, who never shrieked before. Already our democratic neighbor on LaSalle street, has uttered several loud, earnest "shrieks," for bleeding Kansas. But the end is not yet.

In another column we publish the Union's article complete, and ask for it the careful perusal of all classes. It takes direct and palpable issue with the positions taken by the organ of Senator DOUGLAS.

An Irish Relief Society.

We see no evidence that the citizens of Irish birth, in Chicago, are following the example of the Germans, and organizing a Relief Society to aid their suffering poor; and we fear that they will defer it so long that much distress among their countrymen and women will be the consequence. It is said that the Irish are proverbially a warm-hearted and generous race. We know no proof of the fact except the kindness of Irish women to their kindred. Those who dislike the Irish character, as exemplified by the conduct of Irishmen in America, say that it is hard and illiberal to the last degree. If this is slander, it may be overcome at once; and there is no way in which it may be put down so quickly as by sufficient care of the Irish poor, by the Irish themselves. But there is a necessity that they begin immediately. Three-fourths of those who say that they are hungry and are in want, are Irish. Nine-tenths of the beggars are Irish, and the people of no other nation have the art of telling so pitiful a tale as they. Let us urge that steps be taken for their relief. The Irish in Chicago are well-to-do; but if their liberality is not equal to the emergency, the Church to which nineteen-twentieths of them belong, will give. In times of prosperity this levies tribute upon them which they are obliged to pay. Not one of them from whom it does not wring greater or less sums year after year. Hundreds of poor servant girls and laboring men, now in want of food, shelter and fire, have paid it enough to secure all these until the season of distress is past. Let them apply to their Priests for aid. The Bishop certainly will act. He lives in a house large enough for many mansions, which might be surrendered to the widows and orphans of his flock, while he in full canonicals could make a daily round among the benevolent to collect funds for their support. Their sixpences, dimes and quarters, and the contributions of their fathers and brothers, have built it—why should they not enjoy it. The unfinished Cathedral on the North Side could be turned into a workshop for the unemployed. The hum of satisfied industry would be ample compensation for the lack of the mummeries that have been so common there. Let the nurseries of Democracy—the grog-shops—be laid under contribution. They are agents as powerful as the Church in impoverishing the Irish race. They ought to be made to come down handsomely. And last of all, the American Democracy should be called upon to act. Their numbers are few but they have profited largely by Irish support. They encourage the ignorance and brutality which are the curses of Irishmen everywhere; they hob-nob with that false and fallen Church by which their ignorance is encouraged; they sustain the doggeries by which their continued beastiality is maintained in spite of the civilization of the day. Let the Irish have a Relief Society; between what may be wrung out of the Church, extorted from the grog-shops and coaxed out of the Democracy,—between these and the munificent sums that will be asked of Americans of another sort, the Irish will get on very well. But no delays, gentlemen. Organize at once!

PRIZE FIGHT.—A prize fight came off on Thursday, on the Canada shore, opposite Black Rock, between two bruisers from New York, named Coburn and Gribben. Coburn was seconded by Awful Gardner and Jim White; Gribben by Winkle and Pifer. The fight lasted but thirty minutes. On the 21st round Coburn put a blow over the region of Gribben's heart which rendered him insensible for several minutes, and prevented his "coming to time." This closed the fight in favor of Coburn.—There was quite a large attendance of the "Fancy" from New York and Buffalo.

The Great Modern Discovery.

The Chicago Times has made a discovery. It has ascertained that Kansas is bleeding. During the last two years, when all the Republican papers in the North, and the pro-slavery papers of the South, were filled with the accounts of sanguinary blood that was pouring from her wounds, the Times has played the part of a doubting Thomas. In common with other journals of its stripe, it has been ready to sneer and mock, but never to believe. "Bleeding Kansas" has been the object of its special contempt, and its synonym for humbug—the butt against which it has leveled its small though venomous wit. The events which filled others with fear for the perpetuity of the Union and the very existence of representative government, it treated as admirable jokes; and when it ceased to jeer the Free State men, it was sure to applaud and commend their oppressors. The repeated usurpation of power by a minority, aided by armed bands from a neighboring State, they treated as if they were holiday frolics of boys, except that it never lost an opportunity to stab and malign the oppressed. When Lawrence was burned, and when the horrible acts which followed that piece of Democratic villany, were committed, it was sometimes silent, sometimes sarcastic, but it never condemned. Popular Sovereignty, in which it professed to believe, was daily trampled under foot, and the condition of the Free State men was made as miserable, though not as hopeless, as that of the subjects of King Bomba; but it never remonstrated. Search the files of the Times for the past two years, and not a word will be found to indicate that Kansas ever bled a drop. "More Murders by the Abolitionists," "Abolition Defiance of Law and Order," "Factious Conduct of the Free State Men," will be seen paraded before the public, with all the astonishing arts of typographical emblazonment; but you would look in vain for evidences that Kansas had been the scene of a civil war, in which a people, oppressed by a minority at home, and by the Federal power wielded by Democratic hands, freely offered their property and their lives for the vindication of their inalienable rights. The record that the Times does not contain is full of damning facts. Each event that it omitted to note has led legitimately and logically to the result that has at last been attained; and had it kept its readers posted in the current history of the Territory, they would not now be astounded to learn for the first time, that Kansas has been bleeding all the while—that the Black Republican stories, which they supposed were invented for political effect, were true to the letter.

We congratulate the Times upon the importance of its discovery. Let us exhort it, now that the scales have fallen from its eyes, to begin at once to labor with DOUGLAS, whose malignant slanders of the Free State men—whose indignant and repeated denials that Kansas was bleeding at all—whose determined support of the tyrannical Administration of Pierce, and whose warm approval of the worst of the Border Ruffian acts—have won for him in Kansas and elsewhere the reputation of being the cruelest, most malignant and unprincipled politician of the day. Let the Times go back and recount the events which have led to the making of a State Constitution by a meagre minority of the whole people—which Constitution is one of the least of the outrages that the Free State party have endured—and DOUGLAS may yet believe.

The Premeditated Fraud in Minnesota.

The St. Paul Minnesotian gives an account of a Democratic caucus held at the American House, in that city, where an arrangement was made to bring in forged poll books for the counties of Todd, Cass and Pembina, in order to give Sibley a majority. These facts, and many others, will be made public in the Times, when the Committee who have taken the matter in hand, give the subject a thorough investigation.

The Minnesotian of the 14th says:

We understand that on Wednesday last a committee of citizens, consisting of Judges Goodrich, and Cooper, and Mr. Hale, called upon Secretary Chase, at his office in the Capitol, and formally communicated to him that they had reliable information that forged election returns, poll lists, &c., had been manufactured by certain parties, mostly purporting to be the returns from precincts in Cass, Todd and Pembina counties, in which large majorities are represented to have been cast for Mr. Sibley for Governor; and they asked that on the receipt of any returns from these counties, they should have the opportunity of inspecting them, and if brought by messengers, of questioning them as to the source from whence they were obtained.

Mr. Chase agreed to their request, and promised to give them due notice accordingly.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The Associate Reformed Church, in the course of erection at Monmouth, in this State, was blown down during the severe gale on Wednesday evening, as was also the frame of a large house, being erected by Chauncey Harding, at the same place.

.... The negro Young, the Canada murderer, whom we mentioned on Saturday as having been captured at Monroe, Mich., has not yet been taken. He is supposed to be in the woods at a place called Flat Rock, near Monroe.

.... The Lake Ontario and St. Lawrence Steamboat Company, whose stock a few years ago was so good that it could not be obtained, has gone into liquidation. The company owes seventy-five thousand dollars, with nothing to meet it but the boats and furniture. In order to save the property from the hands of the Sheriff, an attempt will be made to organize a new company, and assess the stockholders pro rata to pay the $75,000. A period of thirty days is allowed in order to carry the plan into effect. The capital stock of the Company is $500,000, and they have nine steamers, some of which cost over one hundred thousand dollars each.

.... On Saturday night, the 14th inst., a man and his daughter, names not given, were carried over the dam on Rock River, near Sterling, and drowned. Another man in the boat with them was rescued. The party had been to a wedding, and the two men were intoxicated at the time of the accident.

.... A train on the Great Western Railway came very near being precipitated into the Welland Canal on Monday night last. The bridge was swung open to allow a vessel to pass just previous to the arrival of the train, and if it had not been for another accident, there would have been a repetition of the Des Jardines catastrophe. The snow and frost had rendered the rails slippery, and thus made it difficult to stop the train, and the locomotive was thrown off the track close to the edge of the Canal. No one was injured, but the escape was a very narrow one.

ATROCIOUS MURDER.—An Italian, named Francis Vincent, doing business as a wholesale and retail dealer in wines and liquors, in William street, New York, was murdered on Tuesday evening last, by four men, who went into his place, called for some liquor, sat down to a table and commenced drinking. They invited Mr. Vincent to sit down with them, which he did. Several rounds of drinks were then had, when the four men arose, evidently in concert, and each one stabbed Vincent, from the wounds of which, he died immediately. They then attacked an old man named Hilton, but he pleaded for his life, and they spared him, and made their escape. Their intention, undoubtedly, was to rob Vincent, but they only had time to get his watch, leaving over $300 in money, which he had in his pocket. Three Italians, named Antoine and Joseph White, and Miguel de Begona, alias de Lorenzo, have been arrested for the deed. There is yet no positive evidence against them.

ELOPEMENT.—The Buffalo Express says that a colored man named Jonathan Williams, 55 or 60 years of age, who had been stopping in the family of C. H. Holland, also colored, for the last year and a half, eloped on Saturday last, taking with him Mr. H.'s daughter, aged about 15 years. The parents are desirous of learning the whereabouts of their child, and the old sinner who has seduced her from her home.

THE VOICE OF BUCHANAN.

The Official Organ Speaks.

The Kansas Constitution Not to be Submitted to the People.

[From the Washington Union (Official) of Nov. 18.]

The vexed question is settled—the problem is solved—the dread point of danger is passed—all serious trouble about Kansas affairs is over and gone. Kansas comes into the Union on the principle of the great act which organized her and Nebraska as territorial governments. Another star is added to the Republican constellation, not shining on scenes of terror, conflagration and blood, but lending its light to the peaceful pursuits of a contented and prosperous people.

We lay before our readers this morning the schedule of the new Constitution prepared by the convention at Lecompton. The schedule is that part of the Constitution which provides for the transition from the present system which now is to that which is to be, and prescribes in what manner it shall become binding as the fundamental law of the land. In the dispatches received a day or two since, this temporary machinery, with which all the new Constitution must be preceded, is called a PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, some nervous persons, perhaps were alarmed at the revolutionary sound of the words. It is the mere scaffolding to be used by the people while they are putting up the permanent fabric of their rights, and then it will be used no more. In the mean time all the territorial laws remain in full force until the Constitution takes their place, except in so far as this schedule is used for carrying on the election.

This schedule submits the Constitution to the white inhabitants of Kansas; acknowledges the people of the new State to be the only tribunal that can rightfully determinate what its domestic institutions shall be; and gives full, practical and fair effect to the great principle of popular sovereignty. On the 21st day of December next the electors may meet at their proper places of voting, and express their opinions by ballot on the question of Slavery or no Slavery. If a majority shall vote in favor of Slavery, then the provision which makes Kansas a Slave State will remain in the Constitution, and in that shape will it be laid before Congress. But if the greater number of ballots be cast the other way, that provision shall be stricken out, and then every negro in the State, or hereafter to go there, shall be free, except the few who are now there in the legal condition of servitude.

The special details of the provisions for taking the sense of the people, so far as we can judge of them at this distance, seem to us admirably contrived for the purpose. If it shall not result in a true expression of the popular wishes, it shall be the fault of the people themselves. But we have no right to doubt that the election will be fairly conducted, or that the defeated party, whichever it may be, will cheerfully submit to the will of the majority.

It is barely possible that an ultra-Abolitionist here and there may take EXCEPTION TO THE PROVISION WHICH PROTECTS THE SLAVE PROPERTY NOW IN THE TERRITORY. But the justice and property of this is as clear as noonday. Let it be remembered that Slavery was established in Kansas by the Constitution, and the question is on the abolition of it. Shall it be swept out of existence at a blow, without regard to the sacred rights of property, or shall it be gradually extinguished? The Kansas Convention has decided in favor of the former course; and has resolved to deal with it as all the other States in the Union dealt with it—that is, abolish it prospectively. What crime has been committed by the slaveholding emigrants in Kansas, who went there in good faith, with their families and servants, under the protection of the law and the Constitution, which gave them an undoubted right to do so? Why is it that they should now be driven out of the State, or permitted to stay only at the expense of having their property confiscated?

We heartily congratulate the Administration on this auspicious event. The President, keeping his eye steady on the Constitution and the laws, and turning neither to the right hand nor the left, kept directly onward in the path he had marked out for his footsteps. This dignified and conscientious policy—a policy which had no motive but the peace and prosperity of the country—will be rewarded with the triumphant success it deserves. He saw the end from the beginning. He never doubted that the truth would prevail. In the midst of all the bickering and contention North and South he bated no jot of heart or hope, but persevered his unruffled serenity and his cheerful faith in the right.

The members of the Convention are entitled to be HELD IN EVERLASTING REMEMBRANCE FOR ADHERING TO THE GREAT TRUTHS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CREED in the midst of temptations which the virtue of most men would have been too weak to resist. They were exposed to the attacks of ultras on both sides. The persuasions of one and the taunts of the other were alike calculated and alike intended to influence them in favor of a wrong decision. It is not often that a representative body is found pursuing the right when its friends and enemies are both inviting it into the wrong. There are some names in that Convention which we shall delight to honor.

This news, so full of hope to every American patriot, will bring sorrow to only one class of our people. The Black-Republican politicians had all their capital on the chances of disorder and confusion in Kansas. The enterprise has failed, and they are ruined. The peace of the country, the prosperity of the people, and the safety of the Union, is destruction to their hopes. We rejoice over it none the less on that account. They had their day when their tools and hirelings in Kansas were filling the Territory with alarms, and agitating the whole country when they employed the press, the pulpit, and the rostrum, to echo the shrieks with which they hoped to frighten the public mind from its propriety. Those were the days of "bleeding Kansas," and then Abolitionism waxed mighty: peaceful and quiet Kansas coming into the Union on the broad platform of equal, constitutional rights, will consign it again to its original nothingness.

We are glad to say, in addition, that nearly all the members of the Convention who were opposed to the submission, have finally yielded to the justice and propriety of it.

Kansas in a New Shape—Sweeping Coup d'Etat of the Lecompton Convention.

The Kansas Pro-Slavery Constitutional Convention, in the work which they have achieved, have exceeded all expectations and all conjectures. The prevailing opinion was that this Convention would frame a pro-slavery constitution and hurry it up to Congress, dispensing with a popular ratification. This proceeding, however, is but an incidental trifle in the programme which has been adopted; for this aforesaid Convention has completely superseded the regular federal and territorial authorities by a dictorship of its own choosing.

This is a coup d'etat which nobody outside of the secret affiliations of this Convention could have anticipated. It is, in fact, a revolutionary movement, which puts the local affairs of Kansas in a more critical shape than any of the many other phases through which they have passed. It appears that the Solons of this aforesaid Convention have decreed:

1. A strong Pro Slavery State constitution, which is not to be referred to the people.

2. A separate reference of the slavery question to a vote of the people, which will not affect the slavery provisions of the constitution in the slightest degree neither one way nor the other.

3. That Gov. Walker is deposed.

4. That the regular Territorial Legislature is superseded.

5. That a regency or provisional government is established, with dictatorial powers, of which Mr. John Calhoun is the chief, under the title of Governor, and that this regency is to go into operation immediately.

Now this beats the Topeka government of Generals Lane and Robinson all hollow. It surpasses anything that we have seen of the political pretensions of Brigham Young; for, with all his assumptions of divine right and squatter sovereignty, he has never flatly repudiated the supreme authority of the general government as these Lecompton constitution makers have. Their proceedings are without parallel, and there is nothing like a precedent for them in the case of any other Territory of the Union, past or present. On the contrary the Federal Constitution, the organic law of Kansas, all popular rights, and Territorial forms and usages, are boldly set at defiance by these Kansas disorganizers.

It is thought the design of this Lecompton Regency is to stifle the Legislature and the popular voice of Kansas upon the main issue, in exciting a general squabble among all parties in the Territory upon the local question of jurisdiction. It is further supposed that this regency, through this cloud of smoke and dust, will push off to Washington and attempt to hurry through the admission of Kansas upon the basis of their Pro-Slavery Constitution, in advance of the meeting of the Territorial Legislature.—N. Y. Herald, Nov. 19th.

FOUR CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.—On the evening of the 10th inst., the house of William Quinn, of Alliance, Ohio, was burned, while both he and his wife were absent. Two boys were burnt to death in the house, and a boy and girl were rescued, but so badly burned that they died the next day. The mother, when she left the house, locked the door, and they could not escape.

THOSE THREE HUNDRED NIGGERS.—The Fairfield Ledger is inquiring after those three hundred "niggers" that were making arrangements to come into Iowa as soon as the new Constitution was adopted. Bernhard Hans told the story, and as his veracity is at stake he will doubtless be hurrying up the proof. Can't Bernhard be induced to fall a little in his estimate of the number of sable colonists from Ohio. We have been looking around for the rush, but it don't come.

THE MORMON WAR.

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Proclamation of Brigham Young.

The following are the official documents received by the War Department from the Commander of the Utah Expedition:

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, UTAH TERRITORY, }
GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 29, 1857. }

To the Officer Commanding the Forces now Invading Utah Territory:

SIR:—By reference to the Act of Congress passed Sept. 9, 1850, organizing the Territory of Utah, you will find the following:

"SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the executive power and authority in and over said Territory of Utah shall be vested in a Governor, who shall hold his office for four years, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President of the United States. The Governor shall reside within said Territory, shall be Commander in Chief of the militia thereof, &c."

I am still the Governor and Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Territory, no successor having been appointed and qualified, as provided by law, nor have I been removed by the President of the United States. By virtue of the authority thus vested in me, I have issued and forwarded to you a copy of my proclamation forbidding the entrance of armed forces into the Territory. This you have disregarded. I now further direct that you retire forthwith from the Territory, by the same route you entered. Should you deem this impracticable, and prefer to remain until Spring in the vicinity of your present encampment—Black Fork on Green River—you can do so in peace and unmolested, on condition that you deposit your arms and ammunition with Lewis Robinson, Quartermaster-General of the Territory, and leave in the Spring as soon as the condition of the roads will permit you to march; and should you fall short of provision, they can be furnished you upon making the proper application therefor.

Gen D. H. Wells will forward this and receive any communication you may have to make.

Very respectfully,
BRIGHAM YOUNG,
Governor and Superintendent of Indian Affairs.

PROCLMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

CITIZENS OF UTAH:—We are invaded by a hostile force, who are evidently assailing us to accomplish our overthrow and destruction.—For the last twenty-five years we have trusted officials of the government, from Constables and Justices to Judges, Governors and Presidents, only to be scorned, held in derision, insulted and betrayed. Our houses have been plundered and burned, our fields laid waste, our principal men butchered while under the pledged faith of the Govement for their safety, our families driven from their homes to find that shelter in the barren wilderness, and that protection among hostile savages which were denied them in the boasted abodes of Christianity and civilization.

The Constitution of our common country guarantees unto us all that we do now or have ever claimed. If the constitutional rights which pertain unto us as American citizens were extended to Utah according to the spirit and meaning thereof, and fairly and impartially administered, it is all that we could ask—all that we have ever asked. Our opponents have availed themselves of prejudice existing against us, because of our religious faith, to send out a formidable host to accomplish our destruction. * * * * * * *

The issue which has thus been forced upon us compels us to resort to the great first law of self-preservation, and stand in our own defense—a right guaranteed unto us by the genius of the institutions of our country, and upon which the government is based. Our duty to ourselves, to our families, requires us not to tamely submit to be driven and slain without an attempt to preserve ourselves. Our duty to our country, our holy religion, our God, to freedom and liberty, requires that we should not quietly stand still and see those fetters forging around us which are calculated to enslave and bring us in subjection to an unlawful military despotism, such as can only emanate in a country of constitutional law, from usurpation, tyranny and oppression.

Therefore, I, Brigham Young, Governor and Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Territory of Utah, in the name of the people of the United States, in the Territory of Utah, forbid,

First: All armed forces of every description from coming into this Territory, under any pretense whatever.

Second: That all the forces in said Territory hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice, to repel any and all such invasion.

Third: Martial law is hereby declared to exist in this Territory from and after the publication of this proclamation, and no person shall be allowed to pass or repass into or through or from this Territory without a permit from a proper officer.

Given under my hand and seal, at Great Salt Lake City, Territory of Utah, this 15th day of September, A. D., 1857, and of the independence of the United States of America the eighty-second.

BRIGHAM YOUNG.

The following is Col. Alexander's reply to Brigham Young:

HEADQUARTERS TENTH REGIMENT INFANTRY, }
CAMP WINFIELD, ON HAM'S FORK, Oct. 2, 1857. }

BRIGHAM YOUNG, Esq., Governor of Utah Territory:

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of Sept. 29, 1857, with two copies of a proclamation and one of the laws of Utah, and have given it an attentive consideration. I am at present the senior and commanding officer of the troops of the United States at this point, and I will submit your letter to the General commanding as soon as he arrives here.

In the mean time I have only to say that these troops are here by the order of the President of the United States, and their further movements and operations will depend entirely upon the orders issued by competent military authority.

Very respectfully, E. B. ALEXANDER.

Another Case of "Idiosyncracy."

Arrest of Charles R. Deming for Purloining Letters from the Indianapolis Post Office.

[From the Indianapolis (Ia.) Journal, Nov. 19.]

Charles R. Deming, formerly of this city, was arrested at Indianapolis, on Tuesday night, charged with purloining letters, containing money, from the post office of that city. He has been for some time in the employ of the Sentinel, and was entrusted with the duty of going to the post office for letters and papers. The proprietors have received frequent complaints lately of the non-acknowledgement of valuable letters, which had never came to hand. Their suspicions were aroused, and the aid of Mr. Garver, one of the secret agents of the P. O. Department, was invoked to ferret out the cause. Decoy letters containing money were mailed from this city and elsewhere, two of which Deming was known to have taken from the Post office on Tuesday, which he failed to deliver. When the arrest was made they were found upon his person. He made a full confession, and gave as an excuse for the crime, the pressing nature of certain private pecuniary obligations. Fifteen dollars, of seventeen contained in the decoy letters, he had sent to Louisville to redeem a trunk which had been in pledge there for a board bill for some weeks.

He was arraigned yesterday before the U.S. Commissioner, and held in $1,000 bail for his appearance at the U. S. Circuit Court. As the Grand Jury of this Court is now in session in Indianapolis, it is supposed that a bill will at once be found against him.

Deming was raised in this city. He is a son of the late Dr. Deming, an eminent citizen of Indiana, and has a large circle of respectable connections. He was editor and proprietor of the Portfolio, a weekly newspaper, published in this city some years since. For the past three or four years he has been absent from here, part of the time acting as a salesman in a New Albany wholesale queensware house, and part of the time as a clerk on the river. He also served for a short time as Mail Agent on the New Albany and Salem Railroad. He is affable and sprightly, and might have made himself a useful member of society, but a too great exuberance of spirits, carelessness of personal expenses, and a strong penchant for "fast" associations have ruined him.

Terrible Disaster on Board the Steamer Cataract.

[From the St. Louis Democrat 20th.]

From a despatch received at this office at a late hour last night, we learn of a fearful steamboat accident, involving the loss of several lives, and the maiming and otherwise injuring of a large number of persons. The details given in the despatch are very full, and doubtless entirely reliable.

The steamer Cataract, whilst lying at Lisbon, a small town on the Missouri River, below Glasgow, on the morning of Tuesday, the 17th inst., burst her mud receiver, killing and wounding several passengers. Subjoined we give a list of the killed and injured:

KILLED.

Wm. Brace of Hartford, Con., passenger.
Mr. Blackburn, of Cass County, Missouri.
Barney Kelley, keeper of the saloon.
Mr. McDonald, messenger of the United States Express Co.
Leander Jones, second engineer, is reported lost.

INJURED.

Thomas Hutchins, first clerk of the boat, slightly scalded, wounds considered not dangerous.
Mr. Targee, second clerk, slightly scalded.
Thomas Hogan, of St. Louis, pilot, scalded.
The porter and barber, scalded.
Woodridge, Loring, Kelso and Moseer, slightly scalded.
Five deck hands and firemen, whose names have not been reported, are among the scalded.
The wounded, we learn, would be sent down to this place by the first boat passing.
The cause of the casualty is not stated.

.... Henry Parsons, a baggage-man at the Sandusky station of the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad, was run over by an engine, and both legs cut off. He died from his wounds shortly after.

New York Banks Going to Renew Specie Payments.

We take the following from the New York Times of November 19th:

The Associated Banks of this city met at the clearing house this afternoon, and after receiving the report from the Metropolitan Bank on the Country Currency, adjourned without further action. The report was to the effect that the Notes Unemployed and represented by certificates amount, at the close of the par arrangement this afternoon, to seven and a half millions dollars, and that on the return, to-morrow, to the old quarter per cent. redemption, the Metropolitan Bank will be prepared to take nearly the whole of the New York Country Circulation at this rate, as allowed by law, converting the same into bankable City funds, the day after their deposit. With this understanding, the same that prevailed for several years up to the general suspension of payments in Specie in October, most of the other City Banks will receive these notes, in moderate sums, in the course of ordinary business, from their regular dealers, and the change will consequently scarcely be felt by the community, so far as the Country Note Circulation is concerned.

At the same time, the new provision, as adopted on an after this date, virtually restores specie payments at all the City Banks, as, in effect, it brings back the country to redemption in Specie, in the City, less the quarter per cent. abated, under the redemption law. The Country Note Circulation, which for five weeks has been recognized as Current Funds, will no longer be received from or paid to the public as such. The $7,500,000 Certificates, representing the reserve of this circulation, have no currency except as between the Bank themselves in settling their daily balances at the Clearing House. On the City Note Circulation specie has seldom been refused at the counter since the suspension. It is now in all respects equal to gold. And the remaining slight distinction between the current funds and gold—and this must immediately pass away, as the Metropolitan Certificates begin, on the 1st of December, to bear 6 per cent. interest, and thus become, in the existing state and prospect of the money market and foreign exchanges, a more valuable reserve than gold itself—is, that a dealer depositing the marked checks of his neighbor on another bank, will not be expected, as a matter of course, to demand gold on his check as against such deposit. We doubt whether even this distinction, slight as it is, will be known after a few days. All concern about the use and final disposition among themselves, of the certificates, would seem to have been dismissed by the Associated Banks. They adjourned this afternoon without a word on the subject. In fact, the Country Note arrangement has worked admirably throughout. It has proved itself the chief auxiliary to the early and most imperceptible return to specie payments, besides holding the popular confidence so steady in the practical working of the New York Bank Note System, as almost to destroy the difference for gold, under suspension.

An Interesting Case of Insanity—A Young Lady Stabs Herself with a Pair of Scissors.

On Wednesday evening an interesting case of insanity was brought to our notice by a gentleman who came up on the cars from Cleveland, which possesses more than the usual interest attached to similar instances. It was no romantic story of love, seduction and desertion, but a singular aberration of mind, from no seeming cause whatever, beyond the most trivial. The subject was a fine appearing girl of 18 or 20, whose parents and friends reside in Kentucky, some thirty or forty miles back from the river.

The young lady in question had been spending a couple of months with friends between Columbus and Cleveland, and while there became very much attached to a mocking bird in the house where she was visiting.—The bird sickened and died a few weeks ago, and soon after the young lady began to show symptoms of derangement; bewailed the loss of the bird most piteously, and finally became so mentally excited at times that her friends concluded to send her back to her home. With this view, in company with an attendant, she was put on board the cars for this city on Wednesday, and while on her way up, contrived to open a vein in her arm with the sharp point of a pair of scissors, from which the blood flowed freely before the self-violence was discovered by her attendant. On the flow of blood being observed, the lady attempted to stab herself in the side with her scissors, but in consequence of the thickness of her clothing the flesh was scarcely penetrated, and the wound but slight. On her arrival in this city, the young lady was met by her friends, who had previously been written to, and yesterday morning crossed the Vine street ferry in their charge, to Kentucky.

The case, as related to us, is a singular one. There was no seeming cause for the derangement, which will probably be but temporary, beyond the death of the favorite bird. What was the peculiar effect upon her mind, was not developed by any particular tone or temper, beyond what we have described. The vagaries of the brain are often indeed "past finding out."—Cin. Gazette.

☞ One of the saddest spectacles it has been our fortune to witness, we saw at police station No. 1, yesterday. Down in the basement, in one of the cells, was a young woman, who was arrested the night before, a raving maniac—She is one of those unfortunates, whom the world despises for their misfortunes, and sunken to a very low stage of existence. But scantily clad, and what clothing she possessed very dilapidated, exposing her body, with hair disheveled, she raved and rolled upon the floor, calling upon those friends, father and mother, to rescue her, and imploring heaven's forgiveness for her sins. As the thought of one, the cause of her degradation, would flash across her shattered brain, the direst curses would be invoked upon his head. This poor creature, a policeman informed us, originally came from Batavia, where it is supposed she has friends still living. She has been in the Workhouse, and also in the Poor House. She was sent to the penitentiary. Could mankind but know the miserable fruit of crime—see it in its hideousness, and sympathise with its victims, there would be less of those slips and stumblings "into the very mouth of hell."—Buffalo Republic, 19th.

.... St. John's Church, just erected at Kewanee, in this State, was consecrated by Bishop Whitehouse, on Sunday, the 15th. The building is a neat Gothic structure, 27 by 56 feet.

CHAIN PUMP TUBING, Made of Solid Timber.

TEMPLE & WRIGHT, AT THEIR PLANING MILL, corner of Polk and Canal streets, West Division, manufacture a superior article of CHAIN PUMP TUBING, by using "Wyckoff's Patent Boring Machine." The tube through which the chain runs is bored through solid timber 3¼ inches square by from 6 to 8 feet long. Each piece being made with a socket on one end and a tenon on the other, renders it very easy for any one to construct a tube of any desired length in a very short time and with the least possible trouble.

Wherever this article has become known, the old style of Tubing made of two halves has been discarded. Practical minds need but see our Tubing, to recognize its great superiority. Its great simplicity enables us also to manufacture and sell it at 25 per cent. cheaper than any other kind made.

Dealers supplied on liberal terms.

Notice.

THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS' EXPERIENCE has given the citizens of Chicago ample proof that the soap process of cleaning gentlemen's clothes will not do, as practiced by those inexperienced in the business. The fact of the matter is this, that unless your coats, vests, and pants, are dyed, cleaned and neatly repaired, by men skilled in their vocation, they had far better never be touched at all; but when they are operated upon by experienced workmen, it is certainly a great saving to the community at large, at the same time contributing much to their bodily comfort. Now, gentlemen, all of you who know anything, know enough by this time to be fully convinced that the only true and reliable source of having your coats, vests and pants cleaned, neatly repaired, and made to look like new, is by COOK & McLAIN'S Chemical process. It certainly does remove every spot of grease, paint, wax, and tar, together with all other blemishes and impurities to which such garments are liable. The spots are warranted not to re-appear, as a beautiful finished lustre is put on as when first new.

Gentlemen, call at COOK & McLAIN'S, and look at specimens of their Coat Dressing. If they fail to please you, no charge will be made.

Who that is troubled with any of those disagreeable complaints, such as Jaundice, Dyspepsia, or Liver diseases of any kind, but would like to know of a remedy for those unseemly visitations? We feel that we are doing our invalid readers an invaluable service if we can induce them to get a bottle of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, and take it, for we know from personal experience that it is one of the greatest remedies for general debility, and consequent inactive bodily powers, ever before used. Its action is so perfect and complete as to give relief the first time taken, and if it does to others as it has to us, half a bottle will be all that is needed. We know of nothing we can recommend with such confidence, as a family medicine, as the Invigorator. See advertisement. no13m

Fraud.—We would call the attention of the public against a fraud daily practiced upon the unsuspecting, in the article of Dr. J. Hostetter's celebrated Stomach Bitters. Since these celebrated Bitters have become so popular, others have been making preparations to imitate it, and in some cases have purchased old bottles and refilled them. We would advise all persons to buy of none but respectable dealers; the genuine are all covered with a metallic cap, and the name on it.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.—This Restorative for making the hair grow, stopping its falling out, and restoring gray hair to its original color, is becoming celebrated. All the quack nostrums are giving way before it. Three-fourths of the mixtures for restoring and beautifying the hair, do it more injury than good. They burn it up—destroy the life at its roots—make the hair fall off, and produce premature baldness. But Prof. Wood's Restorative may be relied upon as containing nothing which can in any manner be injurious to the hair, while its success in accomplishing what it pretends to do has been verified in hundreds of cases. We advise gray heads, and heads getting bald—all who wish to save their wool or obtain a new stock—to get a bottle of Wood's Restorative.—[N. Y. Democrat

Hair Dye—Hair Dye—Hair Dye.—Batchelor's Hair Dye is the best in the world. It is the original and only harmless and reliable Hair Dye known. No blisters, no fits, no burning off of the hair—the result of using the many base imitations. The ludicrous and miserable effects of bad Dyes immediately remedied, and grey, rusty red or frowsy hair instantly superseded by lustrous black or beautiful brown, and the hair invigorated for life by using Batchelor's Liquid Hair Dye. What is so ridiculous as the rainbow tints and lilac heads of hair imparted by these pretenders. Avoid the risk and escape ridicule. Manufactured, sold and applied at BATCHELOR'S, 233 Broadway, New York, and sold by J. H. Reed & Co., Chicago, and all respectable druggists. b19,6m,eod,p161

Bogus Hydrometers—Notice.—The subscriber, in justice to the public, as well as to himself, publishes the following result of an examination of an Imported Silver Hydrometer, made in close imitation of his Hydrometers, and numbering 305, but no name:

"In Spirit, 91 over proof is showed 4½ per cent. too strong, and the error increased, till at proof it showed eleven per cent. too strong by the Standard Hydrometer."

In returning thanks to the Western Distillers, Brewers and Spirit Dealers, he would observe, that as regards the mechanical finish of his instruments, they will bear favorable comparison with those having the names of "Adams & Tagliabue" upon them, which were put together in the workshop of G. Tagliabue, J. Adams undertaking only the general superintendence and doing the most essential part, namely, the graduating and adjusting, at his own residence. [See the certificates of Drs. Chilton and Cogswell, and Crane, Distillers, N. Y.; also the cards of A. & T.] J. A., however, freely acknowledges that his chief attention is still directed to the accuracy of his instruments: for it appears to him, that when the discovery has been made that eleven per cent is being lost by the use of a bogus article like No. 305 without a name, it would be but small consolation to reflect that it was done by a very pretty and well finished instrument.

Messrs. J. H. Reed & Co., 144 & 146 Lake street, Chicago, continue to be supplied with his Hydrometers and Saccharometers, and he pledges himself that the same care and skill which gained for the instrument of his original and exclusive make their character for accuracy, shall be continued to all which bear his name.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.—In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates. Now, to allay inflammation, strike at the root of the disease—hence an immediate cure.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Strains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear-ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor in its effect is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, workshop or manufactory, should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Lea & Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce. The attention of Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Eating Houses, Caterers for Clubs, Mess-rooms, and Private Families is commended to a trial of Lea & Perrins' famous Worcestershire Sauce. This condiment by its own merits has attained the highest rank as a pleasant, palatable, and wholesome Sauce, applicable to soup, fish, hot and cold meats, game, &c., &c., is extensively used in all quarters of the globe.

The numerous "Imitations" on both sides of the Atlantic speak loudly of its merits; and the fact that it received the only Medal awarded to foreign Sauce at the New York Exhibition attests the estimation in which it is held by those selected with special reference to their ability to judge of the quality of similar articles of table use. And being the most popular Sauce in the market unprincipled parties are offering for sale spurious Sauce by slightly varying the spelling of "Lea & Perrins," only proprietors of the Genuine Sauce.

MONDAY MORNING.......NOVEMBER 23

Arrival of Daniel Pratt, Jr.—His Interview with Gov. Wise, &c.

It may be generally known that a man named Daniel Pratt, Jr., goes about the country under the impression that he is a candidate for the Presidency, and speaks whenever he can get any one to hear him, whether it be in an editor's sanctum, a meeting house, a lunatic asylum, or on the top of the Rocky Mountains. He calls himself the Great American Traveler.

Daniel arrived in this city on foot yesterday, having walked over a good portion of New Jersey. He returns from a Southern tour, where he has been making arrangements for the campaign of 1860. While at Richmond he called upon Gov. Wise, having first written him that he wished to be received as "Daniel Pratt, Jr., of Boston, the Ambassador of Nations." When Daniel called upon the Governor, he says he found him sitting cross-legged, in a free-and-easy manner, rolling a huge quid of tobacco in his mouth as big as one's fist.

The interview is thus described by Daniel:

Daniel.—I am Daniel Pratt, Jr., the Great American Traveler, candidate for the Presidency.

Wise.—(Bowing politely and smiling)—Take a seat, sir. I received your letter; I have also seen your name in the papers often.

Daniel.—Yes, my name has been in the papers for two or three years; I have traveled more miles and addressed more people than any other man in America. I was born in Prattville; it has not become a city; I worked at farming until I was seventeen, then learned a trade, and have since traveled, working whenever I got out of money. I have been to Washington seven times, and seen five Presidents inaugurated. I have come to look at the institutions of the South, though I am opposed to Garrison.

[Daniel proceeded with a long and detailed biography of himself.]

Wise—I have listened to you patiently, Mr. Pratt, for about an hour, and will tell you what I think. We have been troubled here with too many such as you. You are an agitator. You are not acquainted with our laws, and I advise you to leave the State, or you may get a ride on a rail.

Daniel thinks that whatever apparent motives the Governor had for trying to get him out of the State, the real secret of it is jealousy, as he, himself, has got an eye on the Presidency.

Daniel says he electrifies every audience which he addresses, especially in repeating a poem which he has recently written, a portion of which is as follows:

Oh! where is a man so lazy and fat,
Who has not heard of Daniel Pratt,
Who gathers his wings, and flies away
To the parts of the earth where the light of day
Shines but a little, or not at all,
On the course of the falling waterfall.

I ask you, friend, what mighty mind
Has not seen unfurled upon the wind,
That glorious banner that springs, like a cat,
Into the air, for Daniel Pratt?
There never was, and there never will be,
Such a mighty man, to stand like thee,
O, magnificent Daniel Pratt,
Above the throne where Plato sat.

From Maine to Georgia, all the way,
Great Pratt, of Prattville, takes his way,
As quick as lightning flash to hop
The Rocky Mountains' highest top;
And high up there where hill o'er hill
Sits like a crow upon a mill;
Where a white bluejay is sitting upon a twig,
And the great bald eagle is making a wig;
Where the grizzly bear and the antelope
Descend together the gentle slope,
And chase across the mountain bog
The wild gazelle and the mountain hog,
And the boa-constrictor mounted on high,
Butted his head upon the spreading sky;
And the lions roar, and the black bears growl,
And the yellow birds whistle, and the eagles howl,
Thunder and lightning are in the path
Where Pratt the Great is passing in wrath:
But ever and ever his noble form
Rises above the animals' storm.

One of the Lessons of Barnum's Life—Result of his Shrewdness on his own Family—How his Teachings brought his Cousin to the Penitentiary.

Edward T. Nichols, a cousin of P. T. Barnum, and an admirer and imitator of the great showman, has just plead guilty to the crime of forgery, at Cleveland, and is about to close his "shrewd" career in the penitentiary.

Fifteen years ago Nichols was a respectable hatter in Cleveland, and a member of the First Baptist Church, but dazzled by the brilliant success of his cousin, he left his business and went with Barnum as his assistant manager on his Jenny Lind tour, and afterward continued with him in the giraffe and caravan business. Having learned the art of success in business from his cousin the showman, Nichols returned to Cleveland and became the manager of the "Atheneum" Theater, and a getter up of gift schemes. Here he used Barnum's name to assist his theater. Whether the latter had any interest in it and his lottery schemes, is not known, but Nichols obtained from time to time acceptances from Barnum, which he used until on one pretense and another he had diddled this prince of showmen out of $8,000.

Nichols' business proved unsuccessful—Barnum denied having any interest in it, and wanted his money, but Nichols put him off from time to time by any plausible lie that he could make serve his purpose.

The telling of deliberate falsehoods and the failure to pay his debts were things that his exemplary patron could not endure, and Barnum refused to have anything more to do with the man that had been sharp enough to "do" him.

As Nichols could not get any more acceptances from Barnum, he was compelled to manufacture them. He forged his name to paper to the amount of $40,000.

Mr. Barnum has such a horror of every kind of dishonesty—particularly if it is illegal—that when these forgeries were discovered he abandoned Nichols at once to the law, and forgetting all ties of blood, hastened from a rigid sense of duty to Cleveland to appear as a witness against him, and handed to the prosecution all the private letters he had from Nichols that might go to show his guilt.

Men of softer human hearts, and less inflexible sense of justice than the great auto-biographer, at first supposed that Mr. Barnum's object in attending the trial was to assist his cousin in his defense, or at least to procure some mitigation of his sentence. But it seems this was the farthest from his thoughts.

After the forgeries were discovered, Nichols sought an interview with Barnum. He had a scheme for compromising the matter. His brother was engaged in buying up the forged acceptances, which he was able to get for a small consideration, because, since Barnum's failure, they would have been of little value, even if genuine, and he wanted Barnum to give him a letter authorizing the use of B.'s name in his theater. This letter he designed to impose on the Court as authority for using the name as he did. Barnum, however, after procuring from Nichols letters exonerating him from all complicity in the matter, and statements to the same effect before a Dr. Oatman, whom Barnum took with him as a witness at one of their meetings, refused further interviews.

When Nichols learned that Barnum had given up his private letters to the prosecution, he made no further defence, but plead guilty. He has not yet been sentenced.—Cin. Gazette.

Death of Cavaignac.

The death of General Cavaignac was the most important topic in France. The event took place while he was out shooting, on the 28th ult., near Toure. The General was in the act of raising his gun to his shoulder, when he felt a weakness suddenly creep over him, and he had scarcely time to hand his gun to an attendant, who stood by, when he fell to the earth and expired. His widow forthwith proceeded to Paris with the remains.

The funeral obsequies of the General took place on Saturday, the 31st, in the church of St. Louis d'Autin. All was conducted with order and regularity, although the streets through which the procession to the cemetery of Montmartre passed were crowded, and about 15,000 people followed the hearse to the gates of the cemetery. Quite a large body of troops took part in the proceedings, and many prominent Republicans, and literary and political celebrities were present. The procession contained far less of the Democratic element than was expected. An Imperial carriage was looked for in the train, but none were there. As the hearse passed along, every hat was raised, and the spectators often remained bareheaded until it was out of sight. No address was spoken over the tomb, but the soldiers paid the usual military honors.

The regret felt at the death of the General is described as deep and universal.

.... It is estimated that there is one grog shop for every eighteen families in New York city, and in some neighborhoods in the city, one grog shop for every ten families.

Coal! Coal!!

SCREENED AND FREE FROM DUST. Buy your coal where you may get it cheap. The undersigned have the best varieties of Lehigh, White and Red Ash, Anthracite, Erie, Briar Hill and other coals to be found in this city. Our White and Red Ash coals are acknowledged to be far superior to any other ever before brought to this market. They burn freely without leaving clinker, and are very durable. They will last one quarter longer than Lackawana or any other Anthracite or hard coal sold in this market. Give them a trial and you will be convinced of the fact.

Orders left at the following places will be promptly executed:

JEWETT & ROOT, 71 Lake street,

Coal! Coal!!

THE UNDERSIGNED BEG LEAVE TO inform the citizens of Chicago and vicinity, that they are now receiving, and will keep constantly on hand, all of the different qualities of suitable for this market. Among others, we would call attention to the following well known varieties of Bituminous Coal, viz: Briar Hill, Chippewa (best quality), Tallmadge, and Newcastle. Also, all of the various kinds of Anthracite Coal, suitable for Foundry and Domestic purposes; and Blossburgh, for Blacksmiths' use, constantly on hand.

OHIO AND PENNSYLVANIA COAL,

Having superior facilities for obtaining the above varieties of coal (mining most of them ourselves), we can and will sell as cheap as the cheapest; and by strict and prompt attention to business, hope to merit a fair share of patronage.

Orders left at Crawford & Sackett's Iron Store, No. 2 South Wells street, will meet with prompt attention; or at the Yard adjoining Hall & Co.'s Warehouse, corner Clark and North Water streets; also, at Yard, No. 132 Canal street, West Side, formerly occupied by Crawford & Sackett.

N. B.—We have at all times, Cargoes of the different qualities of Coal mentioned above, for sale at the lowest market price. PRICE, MORRIS & CO.,

Sheffield Coal.

DAILY ARRIVAL OF 100 TONS.—THIS coal will compare favorably with the best coals in the market. Professors Porter and Silliman, of Yale College, in their analysis, state as follows:

Your coal is of superior quality for the production of steam. We have used the coal in an open grate for several days, and find it perfectly adapted for that use. It burns to a comparatively small quantity of ashes, without producing clinker, &c.

Extract from another analysis: We find your coal even superior to that of the famous Briar Hill in matter of gas and coke.

Our sales, which exceed at the present time by far that of any other yard in the city, prove conclusively that the SHEFFIELD COAL is only to be known to be appreciated.

Among the many advantages arising to the purchaser, the following may be enumerated:

1st. The coal is one of the best in the market. Our daily increasing sales prove this fact; analysis proves it. The following are among the many recommendations received from time to time from some of the most extensive manufacturers in the city:

We have for some time past been using the Sheffield Coal at our works for the purpose of producing steam. Considering the difference in price between it and other coals in the market, we give the Sheffield Coal the decided preference. (signed)

R. P. Moses, Iron Works,
Hamilton Brooks & Co., Manufacturers,
Thomas George & Co., Do.
Frederick Hetz, Chicago Iron Works.

1st. From some of the most extensive Hotel in the city, the proprietors state as follows:

We are using the Sheffield Coal in our houses. We find it pleasant to burn, producing comparatively little ash. Repeated trial has satisfied us that it will compare favorably with the best Coals in the city. Considering the difference in price, we consider it decidedly the cheapest Coal in the market. Signed,

Dodge & Langley, Sherman House,
Stevens & Willard, Matteson House,
A. J. Sink, Stanwix Hall.

2d. The coal is always dry, and in good condition. At a heavy cost we have erected a mammoth building, (capable of holding 6000 to 8000 tons of coal.) This covering completely protects our coal from rain, and the effects of the atmosphere.

3d. The coal is carefully screened before delivery. This fact alone makes a difference of at least fifty cents per ton in favor of our customers.

This Coal is used extensively in Chicago, by Brick and Lime manufacturers, and is found especially adapted to that purpose.

For information in this line, we would refer to one of the largest Brick manufacturers in the city—Joseph Watkins, Esq. H. S. BROOKS, Agent,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

To those Suffering from Bad Eyesight.

DR. ROSENBERG, OPTICIAN AND OCULIST, (late of Paris, France,) calls the attention of the public, and in particular of those whose eyesight is weak and failing, to his

Newly Improved French Crystal & Brazilian Pebble

SPECTACLES.

The clearness and perfection of these Glasses, and the scientific principle on which they are ground, are such that they never fail to relieve persons with sore or inflamed eyes, preserve and strengthen the eyesight of the old and feeble, as well as of the young, and enable persons of all ages to read and write, or to employ themselves constantly upon fine and close work, without injury to their sight.

Improved Eye Glasses, Spy Glasses, Magnifying and Opera Glasses, Microscopes, Telescopes, Thermometers, etc., always kept on hand in great variety.

Advice and consultation on diseased eyes, free.

Short or long sighted persons residing at a distance requiring Spectacles, and not being able to attend personally, can be supplied with them, safely and quickly, through the mail or by express, by forwarding to me answers to the following questions: First—State your age, state of health and occupation. Second—State if you want spectacles to see distant objects clearly, or for reading and writing only, or for both purposes. Third—State the exact number of inches your eyes are distant from this print, while reading it quickly and with ease.

The price for my different qualities of Spectacles are as follows:—Fine Pebble or Crystal Glasses set in fine gold Bows, $12, $10 and $8; in silver bows 5, 4 and 3 dollars; in steel bows, 5, 4, 3, 2 and 1 dollar a pair. By inclosing one of the above sums, together with 4 post-stamps in your (registered) letter, you will receive by return mail a pair of spectacles or eye glasses of the quality you paid for, and of the proper power to suit your sight.

Persons desiring additional information on any of the above subjects, or in regard to diseased eyes, &c., must invariably enclose a post stamp in their letter, otherwise it will not be answered.

L. E. ROSENBERG.

Optician and Graduate of the Optic Occulistic Colleges of Vienna and Paris.

THE following certificates are among numerous others which he has received from the most distinguished and scientific men:

LINDENWALD, Columbia Co., N. Y., May 11, 1850

Dr. Rosenberg—Sir: I have received the Eye Glasses which I ordered at your establishment, and selected by your advice. They are of a superior quality, and perfectly adapted to my sight. I think the French Crystal glasses in clearness and purity of material far surpass any spectacles I have formerly used. I can now read by their aid the finest print by candle light with ease. I am, sir, respectfully yours

Medical.

Are You Sick?

THEN YOU CAN'T BE CURED TOO soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the spring, faint sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the headache, heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because your stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your stomach and bowels need strengthening into healthy action. Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quick as they are taken. They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.—and sold by J. H. REED & CO., Wholesale Druggists, 144 & 146 Lake street.

NOTICE.—DR. C. B. EGAN IS NOW prepared to treat all Scrofulous, Cachectic and broken down conditions of the system, as he uses in his practice a peculiar preparation of Sarsaparilla, with which his brother, Dr. Wm. B. Egan, was so successful in this city and State a few years since. This medicine has cured numbers of cases in Europe which resisted every other means, and in this country it is effecting cures where the American preparations had entirely failed. There are persons now residing in this city who owe to this safe and powerful Alterative, renovated and vigorous constitutions. Office 124 Randolph street, opposite the Matteson House. Residence S. Brick! Brick! Brick!
WE HAVE LEFT WITH US FOR SALE, one of the best beds of Clay in the West, situated on the bank of Lake Michigan, four miles north of the City of Racine. There is every combination necessary on the ground to carry on the manufacture of Brick, such as clay, fine moulding sand, wood, bold shore with deep water for vessels to load, natural site for a yard, and in as healthy and beautiful a lake view as can be found. It is truly worth the attention of any party who wishes to invest means in a profitable enterprise. For further particulars, inquire of Beautiful Summer Residence.

THE CITY OF RACINE, AT THE PRESENT time, has many attractions which must be possessed in order to be realized. Parties who wish to retire for a few months from the bustle of our populous city, would make an economical investment by visiting Racine instead of going in dusty cars all the way to the sea shore to find places no better situated by nature. Racine has a population of about 12,000, with fine lake view, excellent carriage drives, plenty of good livery, first-class hotels and accommodating landlords.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAIL ROAD.
LANDS FOR SALE.
THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD Company invites the attention of Agriculturists and Farmers to the fertile lands adjacent to their road, which are offered for sale upon low terms, and long credit at low rates of interest.

It is the policy and wish of the Company to sell all their lands to actual settlers; and no inducement is offered to speculators; in fact none will be sold on long credit, without the distinct obligation of cultivation.

Illinois occupies the most central position of the Western States, and comprises the most fertile section of the belt of land extending from the Atlantic Ocean to the Missouri River, and including New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Northern Missouri.

Unlike the States North of us, the productions are not checked by rigorous winters—nor is the heat of summer oppressive. The lands West of the Missouri gradually and rapidly decrease in fertility, till they blend with the Great American Plain, and being chiefly, if not solely adapted to grazing, can never compete with those of this State.

The lands bordering upon the Missouri and Kansas Rivers, and upon the lines of the proposed roads in Kansas, have been taken up, and are now selling at from $10 to $15 per acre, although settlers have to pay heavy freights upon the transportation of their agricultural tools, furniture and goods; and when their crops are produced, the extra cost of transportation to Eastern markets exceeds the cost of production.

Looking to the future growth of our country, this State, which combines the most favorable temperature with the richest soil and most healthy climate, will for all time be the great grain producing district. It is full of mineral wealth, such as Coal, Iron, Lead, Limestone, &c., and has already the advantages of churches and schools, of population, and of the investment of capital. Moreover, there is scarcely a county in Illinois which has not a supply of timber. The southern section of the State includes at least 2,000,000 acres of the best quality of timber land; and the extensive pineries in adjoining States, accessible by the Lakes, furnish Chicago with an immense quantity of timber and lumber, amounting in 1856 to 460,000,000 feet.

Illinois, especially during the last ten years, has been rapidly developing her resources. The population is now about 1,500,000, and eighty millions of dollars have been expended for Railroads, which, with the waters of the Mississippi, Illinois River, the Michigan Canal and Lake communications, afford cheap and convenient means for the transportation of her products to every market. About one million acres of the Company's lands have already been sold, and many flourishing villages evince the rapidly increasing prosperity of the country. Such is the facility and economy with which these lands can be cultivated, that in two years farmers can readily surround themselves with all the comforts of well settled farms in the Eastern States; and with the fertility and productiveness, that property purchased at from $6 to $30 per acre at six years' credit and three per cent. interest, can be fully paid for within that time, together with all the costs of improvements, by extraordinary industry, from the profits of the crops.

Although it is evident that lands in the vicinity of railroads in Illinois will advance to $50 or even $100 per acre within ten years, yet the interests of this Company are more advanced by placing their property in the hands of farmers, to settle the country, relying upon the business of the road for their dividends, than by retaining it, and charging the obligations to the State. These considerations induce the policy of rapid sales, which have been progressing and increasing for two years past, and will be pursued till the lands are finally disposed of. No encouragement is given to speculative purchasers, as the Company does not wish to dispose of any of its lands except for actual settlement and cultivation. It is evident, therefore, that the best interests of settlers can nowhere be as well promoted as by purchasing and settling upon these lands.

Fine Residence Property
ON MOST FAVORABLE TERMS.
THE UNDERSIGNED IS NOW PREPARED to sell at private sale, to parties desiring first-class Residence Property, and willing to improve immediately, Two Hundred Lots in Blocks five, six, seven, eight, nine, twelve and thirteen in Union Park, Second Addition, in West Chicago.

That the advantages of the West Division are fast becoming appreciated is evident from the fact that its population is shown by the census returns to double itself every three years. If that rate of increase should continue, the number of its inhabitants will amount in six years to one hundred and fifty thousand. It contains most of the high ground, is protected from the east winds, and is the healthy side of the city, where the south-west winds of the hot season bring pure air from the prairie, instead of the noxious vapors of the river, into which nearly all our sewers empty themselves. With one-half the harbor front, and two-thirds the territory within the city bounds, and unlimited room for expansion beyond, receiving all the great Railroads from the west, north and north-west, the main business streets passing through it, the only part of Chicago where the products of Northern Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Nebraska can be received and shipped without the necessity of crossing a draw-bridge,—it requires no sagacity to see that in time it will become the principal business part of the city, as it is already the first in population, and that Lots there will rise in value steadily and rapidly for many years to come.

The property now offered is strictly first-class, and is the only first-class property in Chicago that can be bought at a price and upon terms within the reach of gentlemen of moderate incomes. It extends from Lake street north to Depot place, and from Ada street west to within one block of Union Park, a beautiful public park containing eighteen acres of ground, and the only large park that will ever be laid out within walking distance of the centre of the city. According to a topographical survey made in 1854, by D. Harper, Esq., Late City Superintendent, the surface level is the highest in Chicago, being seventeen feet above Lake Michigan, and ten feet higher than the natural surface at the corner of Lake and Clark streets—a very important consideration in view of the great expense and inconvenience of filling up and raising the grade in those localities where it will be required.

The east line of the property is about one mile, or fifteen minutes' walk, from the new Merchants' Exchange, the commercial centre, and within four blocks of the geographical centre of the city. The buildings of the Chicago Theological Seminary, to be erected next year, at an expense of over a hundred thousand dollars, will be in the immediate vicinity. Walker's omnibuses running to State street, pass on Lake street every half-hour, and will be increased in numbers as the public accommodation may require. The Gas and Water Pipes and Sewers will soon be laid on the principal streets. The market house, good public and private schools, and churches of nearly all the denominations, are within a short distance, and the neighborhood is in all respects pleasant and desirable.

Each block is well fenced, and every lot has a good new six-foot sidewalk in front, and is handsomely ornamented with elm, maple, mountain ash, larch, spruce and fir trees, taken from a nursery and set out by an experienced landscape gardener.

The conditions of sale will be as follows:—1st. Every buyer to begin building within six months. 2d. No house to be erected within ten feet of the street line, or of a less value than one thousand dollars. 3d. Not more than two lots to be sold to any one person, unless he will covenant to make improvements to the value of five thousand dollars, when he shall have the privilege of four lots. 4th. Parties wishing to build immediately shall have a credit of six months on the cash payment.

Prices will range from forty to seventy-five dollars per front foot.

TITLE.—A full and complete abstract will be exhibited from the office of Rees, Chase & Co., with a general warranty deed from Wm. B. Ogden. The undersigned will give agreements, in the usual form, with thirty days' grace, for special warranty deed, taking notes for the deferred payments.

TERMS OF PAYMENT.—One-tenth of the purchase money down, one-tenth in six months, one-tenth in twelve months, and the balance in eighteen semi-annual payments, with interest semi-annually, at seven per cent, per annum; or one-third down and all the balance at the end of ten years, with interest semi-annually, as the buyer may prefer. Purchasers may have the right to pay up and receive a deed at any time.

This route leaves Cincinnati eastward from the depot of the Little Miami Railroad, and passes through the southern portion of Ohio. Between Cincinnati and Baltimore the distance is 588 miles, which does not vary one degree from AN AIR LINE.
Cincinnati to New York, only 773 miles; Philadelphia only 686 miles; Baltimore, only 588 miles; Washington only 603 miles.
☞ Passengers observe particularly, this line is the shortest, and have the right, by resolution of the Railroad Convention at Cleveland, to fix the fare between Cincinnati and all Eastern cities. Passengers may, therefore, rely on the fare by this route being as low as by any other, because all the other routes are governed by this.
Passengers from Chicago who take the Cincinnati Express on the Michigan Central Railroad, will arrive to Cincinnati in season to connect with the fast Express train on this road, and thus go through without detention.

Winter Arrangement.
On and after MONDAY, Nov. 9, 1857, three Daily Trains leave Depot of Little Miami Railroad, Front st., Cincinnati, as follows:
BALTIMORE, WASHINGTON & CINCINNATI EXPRESS Will leave Cincinnati at 6:25 A. M., stopping only at the prominent stations on the line between Cincinnati. Baltimore and Washington. By this train passengers reach the Ohio river at 3 P M; have one hour for dinner on the steamer John Buck, during which time they are transported across the Ohio to Parkersburg, Va; leave there at 4:30 P M and continue on Express Train, arriving in Baltimore at 10:30 A M and Washington at 11:20 A M.
Passengers for Philadelphia and New York continue directly through without delay in Baltimore, if they desire to do so.
MAIL AND WAY EXPRESS
Will leave at 10 A M, stopping at all principal stations on the United States Mail. This train reaches Parkersburg at 9:45 P M, where passengers remain over night in a new and first class hotel adjoining the depot, resuming their journey at 8 A M next morning, and continuing on the United States Mail train through to Baltimore, Washington and other Eastern cities.
CHILLICOTHE AND HILLSBORO' ACCOMMODATION
Will leave Cincinnati at 3:30 P M, stopping at all stations. Arrive at Hillsboro' at 6:45 P M; Chillicothe at 8:25 P M.
Through tickets are for sale in all principal the Railroad ticket offices in the West. To secure all the advantages above enumerated, ask for tickets via Marietta Railroad, and don't take any other.
If you cannot procure such tickets, buy only to Cincinnati, and there procure tickets by this route. You will always save money by this course.
Baggage checked through to Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington City and New York.
Through tickets and all other information can always be obtained at the Company's Office, No. 3 Burnet House, of M. COLEMAN, Agent; at office under the Spencer House, of J. B. OWSLEY, Agent; and at the regular Ticket Office in the Little Miami Depot.

Medicines, &c.

ONE DOLLAR
WILL BUY
ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public, namely, DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a LIVER remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operation of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken daily in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums. Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel, without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the INVIGORATOR, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine and known in its effects. It has scarcely ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.

INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver, is cured when the Liver is excited to action.

JAUNDICE is caused by an improper action of the Liver, and is a proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.

COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it quickly regulates their operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.

SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the INVIGORATOR, which corrects all acidity and sourness of the stomach.

For an over-loaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.

Dr. Sanford's Invigorator
Came to us recommended as a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a Diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor, induced us to try it, and now conviction is certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this, the greatest remedy in the world.—[State Fact.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all Fevers of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of disease incident to children, as DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we use it; for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. There are cases that have come under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, when all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—[Jacksonville (Ala.) Republican.

JUST PUBLISHED,
THE UNFORTUNATE'S GUIDE, GIVING directions where to obtain Medical aid, and containing astounding facts and thrilling and interesting information never before in print. By Doctor WM. THOMSON. Price twelve cents. Upon the receipt of four postage stamps the book shall be forwarded free from observation, to any address in the United States or Canadas. As it contains important private information for both sexes; the author received, through the Post Office during the last month from various parts of the country and city, over three thousand orders, for as many copies, evidently in the handwriting of females, but fictitiously signed, for the purpose of preserving their incognito. It is no "catch penny," but abounds in startling and interesting truths, extracted from the author's daily and case books, the result of thirty years' practice in all climates, in the treatment of diseases of the sexual organs, which gave him better opportunities than those possessed by the Roman Catholic Confessor, to look behind the curtain.
Address Dr. Wm. Thomson, Box 73, Chicago, Illinois.
☞ Doctor Thomson's Office and Consulting Rooms, 79 Lake street, Chicago, Ill., where every species of Private Disease is treated upon principles founded on the solid basis of science and sound philosophy. Those afflicted with Spermatorrhea (seminal emissions), or any private disease before applying to any physician for medical assistance, should obtain a copy of the Unfortunate's Guide, and thus be enabled to escape the disastrous consequences of quackery.
Dr. Thomson's Grand Anatomical Museum adjoins his office. Wednesday from 12 M, to 4 P. M., reserved for Ladies. Patients admitted free of Charge. Boys and children never admitted.

DR. HUBBELL'S
MEDICAL INFIRMARY,
85 RANDOLPH STREET, 85
Opposite the Revere Hotel.
TO YOUNG MEN AND OTHERS.—NERVOUS Debility and Chronic Diseases, the first and direct consequence of excess and abuse of the sexual system, is a peculiar diseased condition of the seminal organs, which is produced by masturbation. The following disorders, some in one case, some in another, are again the direct consequence of this disease, viz: Seminal Emissions, General Debility and Nervousness, Distaste for Society, Gloomy Presentiments, pain and weakness in the back, impairment of mental vigor and memory, weak and watery eyes, eruptions on the face and body, restlessness or vicious dreams and unrefreshing sleep, unfitness for marriage relation, improper excitability of the organs, stricture, costiveness, piles, dyspepsia, &c.

To the truth of this, more or less in each case, every sufferer from solitary indulgence can attest. And further, any latent or family predisposition to disease, as scrofula, consumption, apoplexy, rheumatism, epilepsy, imbecility, impotence, insanity &c., is almost surely eventually developed into activity, and is actually the most frequent cause of those maladies in young persons, as proved by the statistics of all countries. And this is equally true of the sexes. Still if taken in time this disease and its consequences is perfectly amenable to treatment.

Dr. Hubbell has for many years past been consulted upon so many and distressing cases of this vice, that his attention has been necessarily much directed to its treatment and cure, and he is happy to add has, beyond his most sanguine expectations, matured a treatment at once safe and certain, and free from painful operations or nauseous medicines.

Think and reflect upon the fact, that an inexperienced physician is worse than none at all, and that it requires constant attention to private diseases to acquire a competent knowledge of their treatment. It is far better to go at once to those who understand the disease in all its minutia.

Having been long established in this city, he can appeal to all for a certificate of success, which should have great weight with the inexperienced.

Highly Important to Females.
DR. HUBBELL, fifteen years in the practice of Medicine, Female Physician and Obstetrician, offers to ladies his professional services in the treatment of every form of disease! All uterine and painful menstrual obstructions requiring surgical operations or otherwise, will be removed by scientific treatment. Convenient offices for consultations and operations, as well as quiet accommodations for ladies from a distance who may desire to place themselves under Dr. H.'s treatment until recovered. Experienced nurses always in attendance. Communications for advice promptly answered.

Persons living at a distance, by giving a plain statement of their cases, will be attended to punctually, and medicine forwarded by express to all parts of the United States.

Shingles! Shingles! Shingles!
THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE LEASED OF Wm. Bevard his Patent Right and Machine to manufacture Shingles in this city, and are operating it now very successfully, producing a superior quality. Indeed, we do but repeat the opinions and expressions of many Builders, Architects and Dealers, when we say, "They are the very best Shingles made."
This, in connection with the other fact, viz: that we can make from thirty to forty per cent. more Shingles, out of the same amount of Bolts, enables us to compete successfully with any other [illegible].
